

Administrative and Regulatory Matters

White Brenner LLP's attorneys practice in all aspects of the federal and state Executive Branch environment, including but not limited to rulemaking, underground regulations, administrative adjudication and enforcement actions. Beyond the administrative process, its lawyers have aggressively challenged administrative decisions in the courts. The attorneys at White Brenner LLP include individuals who have previously worked for the Office of Administrative Law, the Cal-OSHA Appeals Board, the Fair Political Practices Commission, the Governor's Office and other state agencies.

This experience means that White Brenner can offer clients guidance all the way through the administrative process, and where necessary, the following judicial appeals process. The attorneys at White Brenner LLP are intimately acquainted with the regulatory environment through their previous experience at state agencies and continue to engage with those agencies, keeping the firm informed about all of the latest agency regulations. Clients at White Brenner LLP can count on this combination of experience and ongoing expertise to help them navigate the regulatory process at both the state and federal level.
